

VOLCANOES

Rock that is deep under the ground is very hot. Some rock gets so hot it melts. Sometimes, this melted rock comes up through the ground. When the rock pours out of the ground, it forms a volcano. The melted rock flows down the sides of the volcano. This melted rock is called lava. There can be hot ash too.

There are lots of volcanoes all over the world. A volcano has a crater (big hole) in its top.

Some volcanoes have smoke coming out of the craters. Others have some ash and lava coming out, too. Some of them are very quiet. There are no volcanoes today in Ireland. But there used to be... long ago! ■

CHECK-UP

- 1 How hot does some rock get?
- 2 What is lava?
- 3 What else can come up with the lava?
- 4 What do volcanoes have at the top?
- 5 Are there any volcanoes in Ireland today?

Adverbs

Action:

Bang one fist on top of the other.

Think of an adverb to describe each verb.
Write the adverbs on the lines to complete your poem.

Dex and Dragon Land

Mammy and Daddy have just _____ Danny and me that we are all going to Dragon Land. I cannot believe it! I am so _____. Danny does not seem nearly as _____ as I am. He says that Dragon _____ is for babies. It is _____.
Our new baby could not sleep alone on a volcano. Our new baby could not enter a _____-breathing battle.
Danny is _____. Dragon Land is not for _____ and I am going to _____
it to him!
