Small World History – reading pages 84-86

Get Creative exercise D. 3 page. 87. Interview a parent or grandparent about what school was like for them in the past. Write up the questions you asked your parent or grandparent and the answers they gave. (You might like to ask them about their school day; subjects, playtime, teachers, the school building, after-school activities, stories and memories that they have etc.) You can write this in your English copy.

Some extra activities that you might like to complete in your free time:

· Newsflash extra activities based on March Magazine
http://newsmagmedia.ie/documents/NF_March_TRP_42.pdf – quizzes, sudoko, spot the difference, puzzles, editing, drawing etc.

· Art: Small World History Get Creative D. 2 p.87 – Design a school of the future. You could draw or paint what you think schools will look like! Maybe you could construct it out of recyclable materials found around the house!

· Handwriting: Continue your book if you have not completed it.
